

The American Stroke Foundation is pleased to present the Rose Award for Philanthropy and Community Leadership to:

Bob Frazier

Bob began his career as a teacher and then became principal and president of Bishop Miege High School. His career transitioned to the health care industry where he worked as a senior level administrator and an interim hospital CEO. Bob received the Generosity of St. Joseph Award – a national award given by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet for service to the Kansas City community. He has served on numerous nonprofit boards, and recently retired as Board Chair of the ASF after leading the organization to financial stability and an expansion of services.

Bob Frazier, was presented with the Rose Award for Philanthropy and Community Leadership from the American Stroke Foundation

Board members Jody Carroll, honoree Bob Frazier, Susann Riffe, Paul Becker and Ken Lawrence